How to Read

I visit this topic once in a while, and I'm always glad I do. During this time of the Church year, the season of Pentecost or Trinity or Ordinary Time, we remember the life of the early Christians and how they grew in grace and number, spreading around the world, bringing the news of the resurrection with them. In relatively short order, the band of Christians had moved far beyond the twelve apostles and other eyewitnesses of the resurrection. As Rodney Stark observes in The Rise of Christianity, over the course of about 250 years, with a growth rate of 40% per ten years, it is not at all unbelievable that Christians would compose the vast majority of people in the Roman Empire.

In addition to transmitting the Gospel by word of mouth, the written Scriptures played a huge role. There are plenty of debates about the level of literacy in the early period of the Roman Empire, but let's accept the fact that many people had at least some ability to read and that virtually anybody who wanted could find someone to read something. Early accounts of Christianity feature gatherings in which the Scripture was read.

But just how was the Scripture read? I'm going to suggest there is a difference between reading and making words. It's an important difference. Given the Greek or Latin alphabet, where the letters stand for sounds, almost anyone can learn to look at letters and make words with a few days' training. What you see, you say. Words!

This isn't reading. It's making words. What we do when we read is completely different. We not only make words, but we consider what they mean, how they express ideas, and why those ideas matter. That's pretty hard work!

I'd like to propose some questions to ask when reading or hearing the Scripture. They can apply to anything we might read. When we read Scripture with these questions in mind, we, like those early Christians, find God's Word coming to life in us, for us, and through us to our lost and hurting world.

Sunday Events

Adult Bible Study: 9:00 a.m. "Walking Through Galatians" (led by Pastor Spotts)

Worship: 10:00 a.m.

Children's Church is offered on Non-Communion Sundays, during the Sermon.

Question #1 "What's wrong with the world?"

The Scripture describes a world which, in various different ways, is broken. It's broken by sin, and that sin shows up in anger, fear, faithlessness, and many other ways. There's plenty wrong. As you read, look around at how the world around you is broken.

Question #2 "How did it get to be that way?"

The Scripture describes the fallen state of the world coming from the original sin of humans, tempted by Satan, in Genesis chapter three. Through the generations the sinful state has been passed on both through our natural tendencies and our actions. Again, we look around us and see the harm inflicted by fallen humans in a fallen world.

Question #3 "What cure is proposed?"

The Scripture proposes only one cure for sin, death. The Old Testament tells of sacrificial death of one to take away the sin of others. The New Testament makes the idea clear in the death of Jesus, who gave himself as a perfect substitute. What kind of cures are proposed by the rest of our world? How convincing are they?

Question #4 " Does the cure work?"

Jesus says he is the resurrection and the life, able to bring people to the Father by grace through faith. Again, we can look at other ideas that float around in our world. Jesus is the one who can lay down his life and then take it up again. We don't see anyone else doing this kind of work.

How do we read? When we ask those four questions and live in light of the answers, we find Christ in the Gospel, the power of God, the giver of hope and salvation. Accept no substitutes! You will never find one adequate. This is how the early Christians read the Scripture and their world. The Gospel, working through them, brought their world from darkness to light.

The Gospel remains the power of God. As we read, really read, we open ourselves to godly change. We become the salt and light the Lord uses to bring our world to himself.

Shepherd Supply

Offering free household supplies to those in need.
Open Saturday 9-12 & Wednesdays by appointment only contact Sheryl Bartels, (afternoons at 573-881-7879)

PET Project

Pick up will be the first and third Mondays of the month. At this time, they will no longer will be accepting empty pill bottles. Please bring in your clean empty cans and clean dry plastic milk jugs or other plastic jugs that have handles.
Please make sure your jugs are clean and dry inside.

Operation Christmas Child

A small shoebox can have a big impact. What goes into the box is fun, but what comes out of it is eternal. Be a part of changing children's lives all over the world in Jesus' name through the power of a simple gift with Operation Christmas Child. See the impact a simple shoebox gift, packed and sent with love, has on a child and how it reaches into a community.

Adopt-a-Box: Good Shepherd Lutheran Church is collecting items for shoe boxes February through October. Everyone is welcome to adopt one or more boxes to help with this ministry. Look for the Shoe Box Ministry display in the narthex and pick your box to adopt. Each month we have a different emphasis to help you decide what to put in your box(es). Our goal is 50! Let's work together to help children have gifts this coming Christmas.

Vacation Bible School

We felt our VBS could be more successful if we had an evening format so that more volunteers and participant families could attend. Thus, we will be serving a light meal at 5:30 pm Aug. 9-12 to volunteers and VBS families who wish to attend. The main entree will be provided by the church; but to help offset cost, we could use the donation of the following items:

- 1) Bags of chips (any kind that would complement hot dogs, sloppy joes and chicken nuggets)
- 2) Fruit (suggestion of apples, grapes, cantaloupe, watermelon, bananas etc.)
- 3) Anything that you think would be easy to serve, would have quite a number of servings and complement a light summertime meal.
- 4) Monetary donation to the church to offset cost of main entrees

Bring Donations to the church kitchen by Aug. 9.

Other items needing to be borrowed for VBS (please clearly mark your name on a piece of tape on the item. They will be left the kitchen on the silver counter after VBS for you to take back home)

8 All-Purpose Buckets(3 gallon size) for Game during VBS week

6 Buckets (5 gallon size) for Storytelling on Monday

2 box fans for Storytelling on Tuesday

Other ways you can help

If you've been thinking about one of these opportunities described in the email sent out in mid July ; but haven't spoken to me about that—then NOW IS THE TIME!

- Opportunity #1 --Come early enough to fix a light meal for our VBS workers, children and families and help clean up kitchen when done. Donna Hoek has volunteered to head this up and she has at least one volunteer to help. One or two more would be nice—you could speak for day of the week M,T,W,Th.
- Opportunity #2 --Early Childhood class. Although so far we just have 5 kids; attendance will grow at last minute. This requires lots of Helpers—experienced ones as well as teens who are comfortable with little ones. I have one fabulous Volunteer Teacher but she will want some good help.
- Opportunity #3 --Storyteller -- Use the instructions in Storytelling Leader Guide and tell a bible story (can either use audience participation like the guide explains or can literally "tell the story") I think we have Seiders on this—but it would be great if another team could head it up if we cannot work that evening.
- Opportunity #4 --Team Leader -- Be assigned to about six elementary kids and keep them with you as you progress through the Sites (Bible Story site, Bible Challenge site, Craft/Game site).
- Opportunity #5 -- Crafts and Games. Jacki has volunteered to plan these and she had Sheryl as a Craft helper. Anyone else want to jump in the fun?
- Opportunity #6 -- Bible Challenge--follow the Leader Guide for instructions on a simple science experiment and helping the VBS kids learn a suggested bible memory verse. This would work well with 2 people working together. Est. time of work each evening is 20 min. x 2 times (you will repeat same thing twice) plus your preparation time. Ann can help you gather some of the necessary supplies. This is one area that has been the hardest to pin down—basically the instructions have a volunteer showing an experiment (described in the Leader Guide) and then using the lesson plan to tie it to that night's Take Home Point as well as learning a Scripture through song. Anyone interested in trying this? If needed, you can choose a night M,T,W,Th.

Opportunities abound! --Be there as a greeter at the Registration Table and to help out where needed and talk with families who may be there during VBS in an adult bible study IN THE SANCTUARY.

PRAY for our VBS and for our volunteers. It's exhausting, unpredictable, time-consuming; but also energizing, satisfying and will all be finished in a blink of an eye! Let's not lose an opportunity to share God's wondrous message with our community.

Take Home Points:

1. Jesus is God and cares about me! Based on John 2:1-12
2. Jesus is with me all the time! Based on Matthew 14:22-23
3. Jesus heals me! Based on Mark 5:21-43
4. Jesus saves me and give me life! Based on Luke 24:36-49

Sr. Youth Group

The 2022 LCMS Youth Gathering is scheduled for July 9, 2022 - July 13, 2022 in Houston, Texas under the theme "In All Things."

The Youth Gathering is held every three years and provides thousands of youth and adults the opportunity to come together as a community of God's people to learn more about Jesus Christ, the Christian faith and their Lutheran identity.

A letter will be going out to those age-eligible youth asking that you prayerfully consider attending this life-changing event. We will start to gather numbers to register for this event in late Fall 2022, as well as planning for travel, lodging and meal costs.

Contact Alane Gronefeld (682-7125) for more information.

In Christ,

Alane & Darrell Gronefeld
